What happens if student get sick or injured while on a course

Host Family will look after the student if he/she becomes sick or injured. If student needs to see a doctor, one of the directors and/or the local Representative of Vivi l'Irlanda Experience Ltd will be notified by the host family and they will make every effort to contact parents before a doctor is seen. Every effort will be made to consult parents before any medication is given. In a case of emergency where parents cannot be contacted, the advice of medical staff will be taken. If student needs to be hospitalised, every effort will be made to visit the student and communicate with the medical staff on his/her behalf. This can be done for a maximum of 60 hours. It then becomes increasingly difficult for the Host Family to maintain the amount of time and care that hospital visits require. A daily presence in hospital is seen as absolutely necessary. At this point it is necessary for a family member to take over that responsibility or else Vivi l'Irlanda Experience Ltd can provide it at a cost of €150 per day.

Under what circumstances will student be asked to return home early Serious discipline problems, the breaking of any Irish law will also be a reason for an early departure. Examples of this would be: use of illegal drugs, underage drinking of alcohol, shop lifting, damage to property, etc. Serious injury or illness may also require an early departure, if travelling under these circumstances is possible. In the event of an expulsion, or early departure, fees are not refunded. Additional charges for flights and other costs will not be covered by Vivi l'Irlanda Experience Ltd and are the responsibility of the student or, in the case of underage students, their parents / guardians.

As the applicant's parent and/or guardian, I agree to the Terms and Conditions above.

I fully understand and agree unconditionally that Vivi l'Irlanda Experience Ltd must be notified of any problem or complaint before the end of the stay. I agree that if this is not done, no claims against Vivi l'Irlanda Experience will be considered for any reason whatsoever.
